Defendants.	§

ORDER

Upon initial review of the parties' claim construction briefing in this matter, the Court notes that the parties have submitted 19 disputed claim terms/phrases that the parties assert need to be construed by the Court. The Court believes that the number of genuine disputed claim terms/phrases in this matter can be reduced.

It is so ORDERED that the parties shall meet and confer for the purpose of narrowing the number of disputed claim terms or phrases. The Court suggests that 8 or fewer terms/phrases is a more reasonable number for a jury to comprehend and resolve. The parties must agree on the construction of as many claim terms as possible and narrow the differences in the parties' proposed constructions for any remaining disputed claim terms/phrases.

Within 14 days of the entry of this Order, the parties shall file a revised joint claim construction chart, providing all agreed constructions and the parties' respective proposed constructions of any remaining disputed claim terms/phrases.

SO ORDERED.
